

FOR OFFICIAL STATE BAR USE ONLY

Fingerprinting Requirement Noncompliance Reinstatement Form

1. INSTRUCTIONS

The final deadline to comply with the fingerprint requirement was December 2, 2019.

If you were subject to and failed to comply with the fingerprint requirement by the December 2, 2019 deadline, an administrative inactive status ("Not Eligible to Practice") was placed on your license effective December 3, 2019. You are not permitted to practice law in California until the State Bar receives proof of compliance (State Bar Rules, rule 2.46).

For information on the Fingerprinting Rule Requirements, including detailed instructions on how to comply, please go to Fingerprinting Rule Requirements.

Reinstatement of your license will require:

- In-State Attorneys: Submission of this form and submission of your 10-digit ATI number in the ATI link in your My State Bar Profile.
- Out-of-State/Out-of-Country Attorneys: Submission of this form and mailing your completed fingerprint cards to the address below. The State Bar recommends using trackable mailing services when submitting your fingerprint cards.
